

What are the sights and sounds

- Pact (Parents and children together)
- Families playing
- Dad.
- Joshua, Oliver, Quiney

What stands out in the moment

- ~~Blue~~, soft walls.
- Small rooms
- Small building
- Pretty ~~loud~~ loud

What colors are important

- Blue walls (kinda dark blue / neon blue)
- White carpet (like paper)

What smells and tastes do you connect with this place

- none

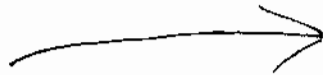

What feelings do you have about it

- Cheerful; kids having fun with parents

What happens in this moment

- I get to see my dad for the first time in 4-6 months. We were all crying and happy at the same time

Moment on back

"I really get to see dad again"? I said to my mom while we park in some dark corner by a small, rundown building. We walk inside the building and the first thing I notice is the soft, baby blue walls, also the paper white carpet. My siblings and I didn't have a good 1st impression. Then we walk all the way back, into a small room and the very first thing I see, "Daddy"! I scream. Us 3 triplets go running up to him, all hugging him at once. As we cry and hug, we talk about how much we missed him. I remember as we hugged, I felt his cotton shirt and rough beard. That one experience was the best one in my life.